Monarch Connections Goes Live in August!

Welcome to the next generation of Methodist University's alumni directory – online! You'll find over 9,000 alumni contacts at your finger tips, and you can start using this impressive network in August. The password-protected site goes beyond old friendships to new possibilities for your personal and professional future.

You will have direct access to your personal record and can update and correct it online so that you will never miss receiving MU Today Magazine and the Alumni E-newsletter. Monarch Connections is an online alumni community, much like Myspace or Facebook, but it is solely for MU alumni, faculty and staff and is hosted on secure servers. Monarch Connections allows you to keep private your personal e-mail address and still communicate with classmates, faculty, coaches, and staff.

Look for a personalized e-mail announcing the kickoff of Monarch Connections soon! If we do not have your e-mail address and you wish to be included, e-mail us at alumnioffice@methodist.edu with your name and class year.

If you wish for your information not to be included in the online directory, you must notify us by August 6, 2007 at alumnioffice@methodist.edu or by calling (910) 630-7200/(800) 488-7110.
