

Welcome, Attendees!

Thank you for taking a few days out of your very busy schedules to join us at the 2012 PracticeMatch Recruiters' Conference in vibrant Miami, Florida! I'm thrilled to welcome you and am confident you'll find that your time here is well spent. Our staff has worked tirelessly for months to put together a conference filled with relevant and helpful information prepared with you and your needs in mind. Throughout the next few days, you will hear from experienced colleagues and knowledgeable experts about a variety of topics you've told us are important to you.

Like the tools and services offered by PracticeMatch, our session topics cover the full spectrum of physician recruitment processes, from marketing and sourcing to onboarding and retention, and everything in between. There's something for everyone at the 2012 PracticeMatch Recruiters' Conference.

In fact, we've packed our educational sessions so full of useful information, it's only fair that we also provide you with a little time to relax, network with colleagues, and enjoy this beautiful city. And what better way to do so than in a yacht on the beautiful Biscayne Bay? During this yacht cruise, you'll enjoy delicious food, panoramic views of Miami and the bay, and some of the best entertainment Miami has to offer.

This is by far my favorite time of year, as this conference enables the staff and me to meet face-to-face with valued clients and dedicated in-house physician recruiters from across the country. You are the reason we work hard to provide the best physician data and sourcing tools in the industry. We aim to support the in-house physician recruitment industry and to empower you to find and place the most quality physicians. The 2012 PracticeMatch Recruiters' Conference is one more way for us to support your hard work. We hope you enjoy it!

Respectfully,

Charlie Holland
